Website Submission and then some....

Search engine submission is a vital first step in marketing your website.

With hundreds of millions of websites on the Internet, visibility is critical! The first action you must take is to get your website indexed by search engines and directories.

When you own a website you should know that is very unlikely that it will be instantly successful. The key to success on the internet is good promotion.

The fact is that thousands of websites are submitted to search engines everyday and not all of those sites get indexed either because they do not have the staff resources to index all of those sites or the websites are not optimized for success! The search engines are becoming more and more advanced and now they are listing websites according to their popularity on other websites, put simply, the more sites linked to you the better your chances of being indexed.

Each time the search engines spider a website that has a link to your website, the better your chances of appearing in a better position on that particular engine. We can't emphasize enough the importance of links. Both from your page to other pages, and from other pages to yours.

Lets face it, No visitors = No business!

This is where we come in...

What exactly will we do for you and your website!

1. We will generate meta tags to help get your page a higher listing on search engines.
2. We will build a profile of your website including keywords, description, owner and more and we submit this information about your website along with your URL.
3. We will then submit your website to all the major search engines, directories, FFA's, free classifieds sites and more with 800,000 places to submit your site!
